Episode 8: Feeling Weakened
=====

The next day, Christopher was watching TV and sees on the news that Delaware University, History hall was blown up. The police and fire department were there to calm the people that were in the university.

Lisa: What's wrong?

Christopher: The history hall of Delaware University was destroyed; it was Hikari who did that. I can't believe she got away from me. Damn it all.

Lisa: You have no reason to be upset; you were just too weak to take her on.

Christopher: I should have beaten her, but she kept spamming those phoenix bullets at me everytime I got close to her.

Then, Heather, Linda and Iris appear.

Iris: Are you feeling alright, Chris?

Christopher: I'm sorry for what happened earlier; I can't believe I almost had your master killed for going after Hikari like an idiot.

Heather: It wasn't your fault; you wanted to see how powerful she was.

Linda: Yeah, man. Try not to feel too badly about this; you need to think about what you just did. You should have died running into danger like you did.

Christopher: . . . . .

Lisa: Just leave him be for the time being; he's feeling weak after what happened at his university.

Linda: Could have fooled me. Come on, Heather; let's go.

Lisa, Linda, Heather and Iris went out of Christopher's room. Christopher was feeling upset that Hikari destroyed the History building of Delaware University. He has flashbacks of Mr. Michael Mitchell, his Sociology advisor/teacher, on how he was able to help Christopher make it through the college before graduation.

Christopher: I'm feeling bad for the people at the university; I wish I never even had these Raiken powers. Damnit, these demons are really contesting my powers.

Then, Maxelle appears.

Maxelle: What's wrong? Why are you feeling upset?

Christopher: It's Hikari; she blew up the History hall at Delaware University. I don't think I can combat her as I am, right now.

Maxelle: Why?

Christopher: I don't know; it maybe - - - I just don't know why, but I'm scared of her for some undisclosed reason.

Maxelle: I wonder what that is? Have you been watching Heartbreak Ridge?

Christopher: I have.

Maxelle: Didn't you learn anything about adapting to the enemy's strengths and weaknesses? You need to.

Christopher: I'm trying to.

Maxelle: You're not trying hard enough. The main reason why you're feeling weak is because you can't adapt to her strengths and weaknesses. Let's not forget about what Hikari specializes in - keeping opponents away from her.

Christopher: I knew that. For some apparent reason, I can't get a boost of my Raiken powers.

Maxelle: It shouldn't be a problem. Oh and by the way, I forgot to tell you something about that movie you watched weeks ago.

Christopher: What about it?

Maxelle: The main actor received a Medal of Honor in participating in the Battle of Heartbreak Ridge in the Korean War.

Christopher: I didn't know that. Where did you get that from?

Maxelle: It's amazing what you can find on the internet these days. You should use it more often.

Christopher: So, are we ready to go to Newark to combat Hikari?

Maxelle: No, are you?

Christopher: I am; I just know for a fact that Hikari's going to be powerful.

Then, Maxelle's iPhone rang. It was Christina Hendricks.

Maxelle: Hello, Christina.

Christina: This is bad; Hikari's got the Phoenix Death Star.

Maxelle: What?!! (feeling fearful.) So, that's what it is.

Christopher: The Phoenix Death Star? What's that supposed to be?

Maxelle: It's a dangerous artifact; right now, Hikari is gaining power from that and I don't think you can take her on alone now.

Christopher: . . . . .

Christina: Do you want me to send Leo to Newark to help you out?

Maxelle: No, we'll handle it with our crew.

Christina: I sure hope Andrew, Christopher and your crew can handle her. Be careful in fighting her.

Maxelle: We will. Bye, Christina.

Christina: Bye. (hangs up the phone.)

Christopher: What are we going to do now, Maxelle? I can't believe we let her get that artifact.

Maxelle: It was unavoidable; we have to go there right now to defeat her. Otherwise, your university will be destroyed.

Christopher: Ok, Maxelle.

Meanwhile at Delaware University, the police officers and firefighters were there to clear up the fire and calm the students and faculty members down. But even they were disheartened by what happened there. Miles away, Christopher and his crew were driving to Newark to combat Hikari and her minions.
